

WNC EARNS APPLAUSE FOR WORK WITH VETS

Obama References WNC During National Conference Speech

WNC was singled out and applauded for its work with veterans during a national veterans convention headlined by President Barack Obama on August 10 in Orlando, Fla.

WNC was among 250 community colleges and universities that the president credited for making tremendous strides to meet specific needs of present-day veterans and for adopting the "8 Keys to Success." The eight steps endorsed by the president suggest that schools welcome and encourage veterans to attain college degrees, certificates, credentials and licenses so they can secure jobs in high-growth areas of the economy.

LATINO GRADS MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Recent Western Nevada College graduates Frankie Perez and Antonio Gudino (pictured left to right) may be seen as typical young men in their early 20's, ready to mature into adulthood and begin their careers. But that would be only a small part of the story. In addition to being busy and active young men, they are also selfless individuals who are role models in the community.
